Now, I wish to inquire candidly, honestly, and fairly, whether the Southern gentlemen who complain so much have any reasonable grounds for that complaint—I mean when they are that complaint—I mean when they are really informed as to our position. The Northern Demograts have said we have really informed as to our position. The Northern Democrats have said we have Personal Liberty Bills in some few of the Northern States, which would somehow trench upon your rights to recapture runtaway staves—a position that in more than two of three cases has not the least foundation in fact. But if these laws are really repugnant to the Constitution, they are utterly void, and the Courts would declare them so at any moment. Thus he winks at and enthe old fourth of July will never be the other side say that the repeal of these bills will not relieve the case from the difbills will not relieve t met in Philladelphia, there to draw up a bill of indictment against a weak king and bill of indictment against a weak king and it was the barmony that would prevail in this Cham barmony that would be will b they would set forth as the cause of their complaints. But they had no difficulty in setting them forth, and so that great article of impeachment will go down to posterity to justify them for all they did. Let us, then, suppose the old patriots had been the Ministers of the Crown, or members the Ministers of the Ministers of the Crown, or members the Ministers of the Ministers of the Ministers of the Ministers of the Ministers the Min

We have before us a proclamation issued for the occasion. Delays may be dangerous, Then can not those Southern nabobs James Buchanan, dated December 14th .- imperiousty demanded. If the chief man It will not hurt them to take son the free people of the United States; yet, if he comes from the North, and especial—would read his speech before he quoted so Government treats them as traitors. He day be set apart for Humiliation, Fasting exigencies—if he is a coward and won't customed to it. We ere impressed with the free people of the United States; yet, you have prevailed for ten years past in the Cabinet of the President, and in the Supreme Court of the United States, and nearly every department of the Government treats them as traitors. He day be set apart for Humiliation, Fasting much from it. He had not said they would be satisfied with any such thing.

But it is here, in "this little nutshell, where may be found the punctum saliens of Southern opposition to Mr. Lincoln and a Republican Administration Behind all POPULATION OF THE GULF STATES .- The their bluster and declarations this is the prime cause. It is their pride that is humbled and it flutters like a wounded bird terfers with any of their rights or with their vent the passage of any law they do not cember 10th, 1860. It was this is the "ground of their offending." The South must get accustomed to disappointments The government patronpeople do not keep pace with the progress of the age and she must suffer the consequences. While she has been sleeping, the great North has been wide awake, and If the scepter has departed from her, she ought not to complain. It will not be so is wonderful how we become accustomed to "taking a back seat."

If the disappointed politicians of the South intend to dissolve this Union in or IT The Troy (N. Y.) Whig says that der that they may still retain power, and why be it so-the work may not be one of may be more difficult than at first anticipated. South Carolina, has perhaps, by this time, declared herself out of the Union; but that don't make her so. There are other interests to be consulted outside of this little rebel State, and they will be he passed for a lion.
